Saving the Best for Last.....

As our high school years come to an end, we look back at all the times that made us who we are today. We remember making our own pizzas at Papa Gino's for our birthday parties and dancing to New Kid's on the Block's "Hangin' Tough." Don't forget that we always made sure our homework was done before Saved by the Bell. We couldn't miss any of Zack and Kelly's romance! Oh, and who could forget slap bracelets? No wrist was complete without one. Side ponytails were the rage, and different colored fluorescent socks kicked butt. Our most prized possessions were our Rainbow Bright dolls, Matchbox cars, and the ever-popular Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle collectible action figures. As we aged, the cootie-infested boys and girls we grew up with were magically transformed into beautiful young ladies and handsome young men. Hand-holding was a major step in the boyfriend/girlfriend relationship. When we got that first kiss in a game of spin the bottle, it was a memory to last a lifetime. We then moved on to Junior High, and our friendships were strengthened. The friends we made then would last for an eternity. The years practically flew by, and before we knew it, we were getting ready for high school. In our younger years, we were.....

Student life is more than just football, basketball, and track. It's more than English, history and chemistry. It's about the friends we met on the bus, in the lobby before school, in the halls, classes, and lunch. It's about the friends we've kept and will keep for years to come. We've experienced many emotions together over the years, especially stress. We've stressed over tests, prom dates, midyears, and finals. But through it all, our friends were there beside us. Through the years we've grown and matured together, watched our friends become the young men and women they are today. By the time we started senior year, we realized that we were .....

From the time we recognized familiar faces in freshman English to the time we hug that same person after graduation, friendships have been made that last a lifetime. Over the past four years, we made friends we can laugh with, friends we can tell our secrets to, and friends we can even cry at sappy movies with. These people will be there through the good, the bad, the ups, and the downs of life. Always treasure your friends and together you will be.....

B-R offers an excellent variety of valuable learning experiences. Freshman year, we learned what countries such as Egypt and China were like in ancient times. In English we learned how to be gramatically correct and compose our thoughts on paper in ways never imagined. Math was more than basic arithmetic, and our knowledge of the land, air, and sea in Earth Science astounded parents during dinnertime conversations. We also learned the basics of Spanish and French. As sophomore year rolled around, we read classics like A Tale of Two Cities, Julius Caesar, and To Kill a Mockingbird. Carrying on a conversation in a foreign language was becoming easier. Parle' vous Francais? Hablas espanol? As juniors our founding fathers were our teachers and the Declaration of Independence was our textbook. Herman Melville, Stephen Crane, and Emily Dickenson became our best friends. Trig ratios and the Law of Partial Pressures sounded less like gibberish and more like a familiar and frequent reality. However, in our senior year we all reached the pinnacle of our educational experience, and quickly discovered that, in terms of learning, BR truly believes in.....

Long after we forget how to find the area of a circle and how to form a chemical equation, the intimate moments shared with friends will remain in our minds and in our hearts. BR provides us not only with a strong academic background, but also with special moments never to be forgotten. However, all must admit that graduation is the most memorable moment of our high school careers. Waiting for that special moment to arrive, we are.....

With all the important lessons we learn here at BR, sportsmanship is no exception. In the real world, competi- and teamwork will play a role in our lives. While we are learning these important lessons, we are also having fun, making friends, and, most importantly, creating memories that will last a lifetime. Whether we win or lose, we come to learn that as long as we play hard and have fun, we are ultimately gaining anyway. As time passes, and graduation inevitably approaches, we realize just how fond these moments were. Thankfully, the memories will never truly end, and we will always be cherishing them and.....

Activities at B-R allow students to express themselves creatively and with others who share the same interests. The natural musicians can participate in band, chorus, and the school musical, while those who are more literarily-inclined can join in on the school newspaper, creative writing, or the extremely cool Unitas yearbook staff. Those who are artistically talented can take part in the art and photography clubs, while the school spirited can find their place among the cheerleading or pep squads. While doing what we love best, we helped define character, build friendships, and just plain have fun.

As we come to the end of our days at Bridgewater-Raynham, we hold our memories of events past, as well as events yet to come, dear to our hearts. Never again will we experience such carefree days in such a welcoming environment. We look now to the future .....saving the best for last.

Thank you, Mrs. Donna Holt

The Class of 1999 enthuisatically dedicates the 1999 Unitas to a teacher whose service to the students of Bridgewater Raynham has gone above and beyond the call of duty.

A full-time mother herself, Mrs. Holt still manages to find time for her other kids here at B-R. Mrs. Holt has brought her intelligence, her leadership, her hard work and her trademark sense of humor to every aspect of the Regional. She has been the favorite teacher of Spanish students throughout the school, as well as advisor for the Class of 1998. We can also thank Mrs. Holt in large part for bringing the Peer Mediation program to B-R. Mrs. Holt advised the mediators in their inaugural year here at the Regional.

When Class of 1999 student David Comis fell ill to cancer, Mrs. Holt didn't hesitate to reach out and lend a hand. She was there every step of the way for David, his family, and his friends. When David was unable to come to school, Mrs. Holt became his tutor, and a trusted friend. She frequently drove Dave's friends to see him in the hospital in Boston, and made sure there was always a constant network of support. Mrs. Holt has also taken it upon herself to ensure that there is a scholarship set up in David's name.

For these reasons, the Class of 1999 would like to thank Mrs. Donna Holt, and wish her years of continued success in the future.

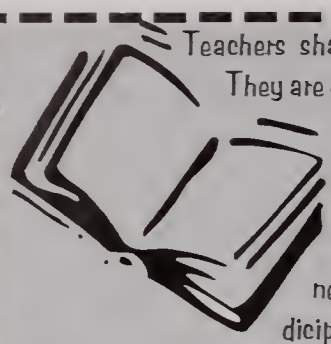
2. As class advisor, she helped the seniors of 1998 shine at the pep rally.
3. Friends of David Comis gather to plan an appropiate tribute with the help of Mrs. Holt.
4. "Sister Jim" gets a laugh from Mrs. Holt at the Senior Holiday Party.

Since 1983, Roland Chevrefils ("Chev" to his students) has been synonomous with shop classes at B-R. After 17 years of both educating and entertaining thousands of students, Mr. Chevrefils is retiring. Chev's colorful personality and zest for life have brought out the best in his students. Many of them have gone on in the field and become successful as a result. Chev will leave with many fond memories of classes and students, especialy the TJ^2 projects which enabled young people and adults to work side by side as equals to make a robot move to do their bidding. He also enjoyed the Shop BBQ of 1998. His retirement plans include becoming "self-employed and independently wealthy". We wish him good luck and success.

Also leaving B-R was Sylvia Blakely, our Instructional Media Specialist (or librarian back when the IMC contained only books) She is best known for her one week course "Introduction to B-R's IMC" which she taught to freshman English classes every year . When computers came to the library, she became an expert in teaching students to surf the net to do research in all subjects. We wish her a happy retirement.



Teachers shape our lives in so many ways. They are one of the biggest part of B-R life. Whether it's helping us write a sonnet, solve a calculus problem, or create a work of art they open our minds and introduce us to new things. Somehow, they are our diciplinarians and our friends. Mr. Phaneuf's colored socks can brighten any one's day and when Ms. Burton says "Ah, indeed!" you know you're on the right track. They are there for us in the classroom and out. Ms. Paterna's and Ms. Fisher's school spirit cannot be topped. Faculty members spend countless hours at football practice or musical rehearsals even after a stressful day at work. A mere thank you is not enough for their dedication.

A Special Tribute:

Thank you, Mr. Edward J. O'Donoghue

Edward O'Donoghue had a long and fulfilling career of service to the children of Bridgewater and Raynham. O'D taught kids in the classroom as a science teacher. Himself an All-American, O'D also worked with the kids on the athletic field as a coach of track, weight lifting, and football.

When O'D wasn't working directly with the students of Bridgewater-Raynham schools, he was working for them. Mr. O'Donoghue worked tirelessly at B-R as attendance supervisor and assistant headmaster.

As superintendent, Mr. O'Donoghue was instrumental in the influx of new technology to the school district, keeping B-R on the leading edge of a new wave of education. O'D obtained new computers, and built a spacious technology center in the high school. B-R students will be benefiting from this man's efforts for years to come.

O'D has also lent his considerable wisdom and years of experience to others as a guest lecturer at Bridgewater State College. Mr. O'Donoghue, the consummate leader, also devoted his time and talents to Project Contemporary Competitiveness and the Southeast Massachusetts Tech Prep Consortium. O'D was President of both organizations' board of directors. Edward J. O'Donoghue served a long and honorable career, bringing together a school district and countless individuals.

O'D has left his mark on the towns of Bridgewater and Raynham. Mr. O'Donoghue is an incredible leader whose presence will be sorely missed. O'D is rightly called "The Father of B-R."

Top: Mr. O'Donoghue
Center: At his retirement party, O'D addresses the audience.
Below: Former coach and ardent fan of B-R football, O'D gathers with Athletic Director Paul Urban, Principal Mr. Robert McIntyre, Coach Dan Buron and his son Tyler to congratulate the team on their Super Bowl victory.

"Husband, father, teacher, coach, administrator, superintendent; these terms all accurately describe this man. However, we are here tonight because of other words that describe him in a way that has touched us all, to some degree. These words are leader, mentor, friend.

O'D is all of these things but what sets him apart is that he does all of these things so well. We also know the secret to his success. He cares! His passion, his energy, his high expectations, his loyalty, his commitment to excellence and above all his insistence on putting the best interest of the children of Bridgewater and Raynham first brought three school districts into one, and raised the quality of teaching and learning in our schools. This is his legacy. All who live here now and in the future have been given the means for success by this remarkable leader.

We are here tonight to offer O'D and his family our warm affection, sincere thanks, and best wishes for continued prosperity, health, and happiness in the years to come. O'D, we are going to miss you."

11. "Hey, what can I say?" asks Mr. Capen as Sara Werra ponders the answer.
12. Mr. Barber gives serious thought to answering Beth Leary's question.
13. Mr. Kearney embraces Doug Bessette as the Trojans celebrate their victory.
14. Rushing to resupply the school store, Mr. Fisher delivers twizzlers to hungry students.

Upon entering B-R on our first day of freshman year, we were in a strange place, surrounded by strangers. As the years went by, B-R became a second home, and the strangers became a second family. We will miss coming here every day, walking thorugh the halls, making up excuses for tardiness and sharing laughs in the cafeteria. We will miss having a locker to decorate and gather at between classes. The fears we had freshman year will begin to resurface as we face our college experience. But first we will graduate as one... the class of 1999.. the last class of the twentieth century...

1. Is Peter Maffeo calling for help or cheering for another Trojan victory?
2. Heather Hennessy and Kerri Sawler strike a pose at 8th grade graduation.

3. Kristen Dzialo, Matt Haggerty, and Franklin Furr share a friendly moment.
4. Peter Peruzzi and Christina Niccoli wait ever so patiently in the Raynham lobby.
5. Jim Kirkcaldy decides which picture package will remind him of the Junior prom.
6. Mr. Cox's class cannot contain their senior Trojan pride.
7. Lauren Sankus and Dhruva Shah play an intense game of tic-tac-toe on the window before English.
8. Jon Boyd and Jon Sheehan liven up the class with their Halloween costumes.
9. Jen Mackenzie and Jennifer Cook take a break from the party, but only for a minute.
10. Zeeshan Abid and Mellisa Narciso take a break from Ben McKenna's story, but Joe Almada and Jay Korske can't wait to hear the rest.
11. Becky Norris, Stephanie Smith, and Beth Anne Giovanonni are too busy to smile for the camera in Math Topics.

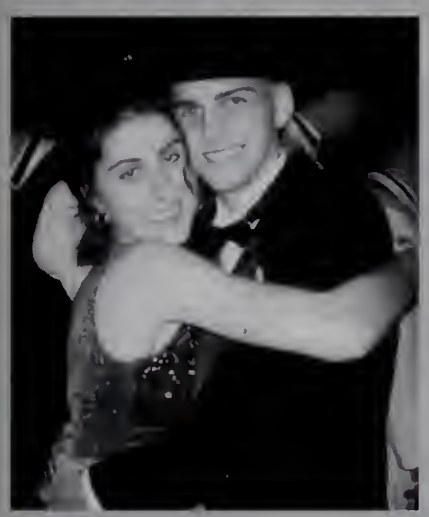
Remembering David and Sharon



"And yet that know-how, I was convinced, is a powerful force that has not really come under our control. Despite all our efforts to coax the healing process when it falters, medicine cannot explain it. Healing is alive and complex. We deal with it on our own limited terms and it seems to obey our limits. Yet when something strange happens, as when an advanced cancer suddenly and mysteriously vanished, medical theory is baffled. Our limits then seem very artificial." Chopra

Top: David and his friends share a good time at the "Hello Dolly!" cast party. Far Left: A dapper Dave in a black hat danced with Julie Adams at the Junior Prom. Left: Dave's blue eyes melted hearts even at a young age.

B-R has lost a star this year, a student who held a special place in so many of our hearts. David Comis was a bright, energetic young man with a contagious smile. An aspiring actor with the school's Raynwater Players, David had a dream of being on the silver screen. The production of "Hello Dolly!" was his chance to shine. Although David will not be able to graduate with the class of 1999 he will undoubtedly be here with us in spirit.

David's enthusiasm, friendship, compassion, humor, and courage to fight against all odds not only motivate us, but also leave with us many lasting life lessons. He has taught us all that it is okay to laugh for no reason, to take a break from school work to spend some time with good friends, to interrupt a quiet room with a random outburst of song and giggling, to run up and hug a friend just because you want to, to be yourself when others around you think and do otherwise, and to always follow your heart. David turned every opportunity he had into wonderful memories that will live on forever.

Sharon Bradshaw might have seemed like a shy young woman to most, but among her circle of friends she was always full of energy and life. Her friends will remember her as the girl who always sported clothing with the Adidas label or covered her body from head to toe with Tu Pac apparel. The girl who could never pass up a Butterfinger. Sharon shined as an artist, who particularly loved to sketch and color cartoon characters like Winnie the Pooh and Tigger. However, the bouncing tiger usually ended up being her first choice.

Outside of school, Sharon loved hanging out with friends and going to clubs for only one reason: the great rap music by some of the hottest artists in the '90's. No one will ever forget her trademark either: her small feet. Often Renec Santos and Sharon would goof around swapping shoes because each had found someone with the same small shoe size. Though Sharon Bradshaw treated art like a hobby, the world lost a truly blossoming young artist.

Oh, Baby, Oh.

When we think back to our childhood, many fond memories surface. We woke up early to watch Saturday morning cartoons. We can still feel the bright-eyed, anxious anticipation as we waited for Lite Brite or the newest Transformers toy to come out. Everybody wanted the New Kids Album, and during roller skating birthday parties we had the times of our lives. As kids, we had nothing to worry about except for what was going to happen next on Punky Brewster or the Smurfs. We were eager to follow the adventures one exploits of Mr. T and his A-Team. Dressed in underoos and a blanket, little boys and girls became Superman (aka Brian Heavey, above) and Wonder Woman.

Every little boy and girl loved to play dress up. Who can deny the excitement of becoming Strawberry Shortcake? Kate Oulette, left, shows us her berry sweet outfit. Who can forget the pride of saving the world from Lex Luthor in your red cape and blue tights, and all before supper time?

Animals were an important part of our young lives. Loving memories of our cherished pets color our childhood. Cuddling with our kitten, or playing with the family dog, (Natalia Luiz, top, and Kerri Sawler, middle) or holding our bunny rabbit, (Jen Grunin, bottom) all of us can remember the fuzzy compnions of our childhood. Our pets became our animal friends, and we were devastated when our dogs died, or we had to hold funeral services for our beloved goldfish. Animals were a big part of our growing up.

Our younger years were a time of firsts. When we were little we experienced our first haircut (Jim Kirkaldy, above) and our first Halloween (Joe Lucchetti, right), or our first dance recital (Chirsty Maxwell, below) These events were milestones, and though we approached them with some trepidation, all of our first experiences have a magical sense of wonder that can be achieved only by looking at life through the eye of a child.

As we graduate from high school and create new memories, we will still look back on these days with a romantic nostalgia.

What do the Trojans, a gorilla, and 500 balloons have in common? The 1998 Fall Sports Pep Rally*! The gym was decorated wall to wall with spirited posters and almost every student sported red and white clothing. The band and color guard pumped up the the crowd with their half time show followed by the cheerleaders who performed their award winning routine. Next, our Trojan football team took center stage as the players danced to Brandy and attempted to cheerlead.*

As our senior year creeps up on us, it is important we look back on all that we accomplished during our first three years of high school school. It started in 8th grade when we heard rumors about kids getting lost, seniors beating up freshmen, and how hard our adjustment would be. The fear soon diminished and once we realized there was no" pool on the third floor," some of the initial anxieties soon subsided. As sophomore year came and reality slapped us in the face, giving us a taste of what was head of us and a chance for independence, we had our first look at PSAT's and other tests to evaluate our futures. Our childhood dreams of receiving licenses and cruising around with our friends were approaching but delayed as many of us started our many treacherous hours of drivers ed. Sophomore year also gave us the chance to shine in sports and make a name for ourselves in the school. As Junior year came long, it seemed that overnight we had matured into young adults. Decisions about colleges haunted us as we strived to meet our demanding teachers' high standards. As the perils of adulthood now face us, we are charging ahead with anticipation for the advent of senior year.

On the field, in the gym, and on the ice, B-R athletes shined. B-R's sports program taught us discipline and gave students the opportunity to develop their athletic prowess. This year, the dedicated athletes fielded the first ever volleyball team in B-R history. The mighty Trojans had a record-breaking year, with stellar performances turned in by the football Super Bowl champions, the league champion track team, the hard hitting softball team, and the unbelievable soccer and gymnastics teams. The Trojans, yet again, proved superb in the Old Colony League.

BR Supermen Fly to New Heights

Football.....

This year was a tremendous success for B-R football! Led by Doug Bessette, Jon Cuccinatto, Tim Andrews, and Ken Lomba, our boys romped through the Old Colony League as they never have before.

On the defensive side, Jon Laubinger worked up front to shut down the opposition's running game. Tim Lawton and Steve Woodruff limited the opposing quaterback's to minimal yardage in the air. Defensive backs Jay Rawlins and Darnell Kuykendall supported B-R's defensive line in the secondary.

Next year's team has a tough job ahead of them living up to this undefeated season and Superbowl victory. With the returning cast of Darnell Kuykendall, Jay LeClair, Adam Crossman, and Dave Gomes, their odds look good.

Proud Lady Trojans Stick It Out

Field Hockey.....

Even though the Lady Trojans ended their season with a 6-11-1 record, they played with strength and determination until the final game. Led by captains Lora Marden and Kara Moran, the tight-knit group bonded despite their bumpy season. An outstanding defense included: Danielle Dangoia, Lisa Carrozza, Kara Moran, Lora Marden, Sarah Daily, Alicia Petrucci and Cathy Cobbett; the season ended with six shut-outs. Kim Halon, Kristen Grady, Erika Smith , Chrissy Hall, Maura O'Day and Melanie Sharp led the offensive attack. The girls played with pride and tenacity all year.

MIAA Quarterfinalist Shine

Boys' Soccer...

The Boys' Varsity Soccer team had another tremendous year in 1998. Led by Captians Peter Joyce and Mike Dembro, and with the guidance of Coach George Pacheco, the team advanced to the finals of the South Sectional Tournament. By defeating Xaverian, New Bedford, and Falmouth, they exceeded all expectations.

Throughout the season B-R exhibited poise, character, and, above all, teamwork. With tremendous fan support and great coaches the boys hope to match and surpass the accomplishments of this year's team. Next year they will be led by newly-elected Captains Kurt Silva and Orestis Tiliakos.

Fab Four Help Team to Do Their Best

Girls' Soccer.....

Despite the obstacles they were forced to overcome, the girls' soccer team gave a strong fight this season. With only four returning seniors, they dealt with being a young and inexperienced team. After battling numerous injuries, captains Amy Lamson, Leianne Best, Jen Hayes and Rachel Carter fought for a spot in the MIAA state tournament. Overall, they finished second in the OCL with only 3 losses. Ending a long and eventful season, they trampled Silver Lake 3-0 in the last game and headed into the tournament.

Trojan Runners Cross Line of Success

Boys' Cross Country.....

The Boys' cross country team experienced a winning season under first-year coach Joe Lamar. Coach Lamar put the team through rigorous practices all season long which undoubtedly contributed to the level of competitiveness the team displayed. As always, captains Jim Emord and Jim Delgado were instrumental in all of the team's accomplishments. Eric Mulholland, Ryan Morin, and Geoff Churchill had exceptionally successful seasons while Mike Bolotin played a strong supporting role and juniors Mark Krikorian and Jeff Bachand blossomed into respectable runners. The team proved their talents by winning the O.C.L.

Cote and Karns Foster Excellence

Girls' Cross-Country.....

Under coach Paul Urban, Jr., the girls' cross country team experienced one of its best seasons ever, with a record of 5-2. Anchored by experienced upper classmen Cheryl Cote and Laura Karns, this young team shows definite potential for the future. The supportive atmosphere also fostered excellent seasons from underclassmen Jill Buckley and Molly Lawton. Struggling through injuries and minor set backs, this enthusiastic team came together for a successful, exciting, fun season.

Pimental's Pack Posts Impressive Record

Golf.....

The 1998 edition of the golf team faced the formidible challenges of a tough league schedule and the loss of several key seniors from the '97 squad. Led by senior captain Ryan Derosier, Bobby Jose, and Gerry Theriault, George Pimental's team posted an 8-6 record in the Old Colony League and finished with an impressive tally of 9 wins and 6 losses. With important contributions from underclassmen and a formidible junior varsity team, the focus was on teamwork and a return to the state championship. Both goals were achieved when Theriault, with Derosier as an alternate, represented the team in the state match.

Females Wrestle Their Way to the Top in Male Dominated Sport

Wrestling....

The B-R Trojan Wrestling team had another great season this year with a 34-7 record. Led by captains Jesse Mead, Aaron Sesin, and Jared Abrahamson and coached by Mr. Holmes and Stump, they are a force to be reckoned with. A new first for the team is the addition of four girls, three on J.V. and one on varsity: Megan Alden, Jaime Chipman, Karen Chouinard, and Christine Schmuck. Through hard work and perserverance the girls have won the respect of their teammates.

B-R Students Muscle in on Fitness

Weightroom.....

Bridgewater-Raynham's intramural weight training members are delightfully different from other groups. Three afternoons a week they meet under the guidance of Mr. John Lennon. No crowds applaud their efforts or acknowledge their hard work. Each lifter is expected to assist a fellow trainer. Both young men and young women gather in the weight room for a common goal: self-improvement. Many participate in other sports and use this opportunity to keep in tip-top shape in their off-seasonss. In addition, many friendships begin here.

Trojan Women Make History

Volleyball.....

The first year for girls' volleyball at B-R was a great success. Because the girls had never played on a volleyball team before, they had to learn the rules, strategies, and skills from scratch. In the first few games of the season they were overpowered by more experienced teams; however, the leadership of senior captains Amy Innocenzi, Colleen Gilchrist, Kim Correia, Mary Plante, Rita Mason and Christina Pelletier pulled them through, and their practices finally payed off. The Junior Varsity players were not victorious, but their spirit and drive never faltered. The Trojan volleyball team has become a force to be reckoned with.

Records Broken State-wide

Boys' Winter Track.....

The Boys' Winter Track Team had another spectular season. The team went undefeated with an 8-0 record and went on to win the league meet as well. Capt. Jim Emord, Capt Jim Delgado, Tim Resmini, Seth Nelson, Tony Gramazio, Pete Maffeo, and Brian Heavey gave stellar performances. Other main contributors to the team's success were Ryan Morin, Darrel Kuykendall, Geoff Churchill, and Rob Finucci. Capt. Scott "Kid" Kimball finished his high school Winter Track season in grand fashion winning the OCL meet, establishing a meet record in the 300, and then going on to be top in the state by winning the All-State Meet with a record time of 35.18.

Fleet Plays in Hoops Finals

Boys' Basketball.....

The B-R boys' basketball team had a super year, winning the O.C.L. championship with a 17-3 regular season record. The fan support boosted the team during Tourney time. B-R went on to win against Newton South (82-60), Brookline (76-72) and defending state champs, Attleboro (65-60). The team is led by senior co-captains Keith and Kyle Quimby ("The Brothers"), Jon Cucinatto, Mike Rich, Cory Simmons, and Steve "Woody" Woodruff. BR also has strong support from underclassmen Brendon and Keith Gill, Jay LeClair, Ed Casabian, Brendon Barry and Mike Welch. This year marks the first time in school history that the team has won the South Sectional Title. Senior Dribblers Dominate OCL

Girls' Basketball....

Once again, the Lady Trojans led by four experienced seniors, April Morin, Lesley Pinkerton, Mary Golden and Amy Lamson, dominated the OCL. The girls ended with a record of 16-5 and advanced to the state tournament. Outstanding efforts were put forward by OCL all-stars April Morin, Lesley Pinkerton, and Lori Cyr. Girls' Tennis Shines with Top Talent

Girls' Tennis.....
The 1998 Girls' Tennis Team, led by captains Natalie Porto and Christina Pelletier, had a good season in which they qualified for the state tournament. Losing only two seniors, this young team has the talent and ability to take it to the top in the '99 season. Rookie Team Falls One Short of Tournament Baseball.....

As a young team, the Trojans fell short of an OCL title. The Trojans were just one win short of a tournament berth. They suffered a tough loss to Brockton in the final game of the season. Although the season didn't turn out as they expected, they should be in the title runnings next year with a strong nucleus of returning starters. With Craig Audette, Matt Haggerty , Tim Lawton, Mike Magoogan, Jay Rawlins, Jon Ryan, and Tim Zackrison returning as starters the team should have an impact on the '99 season.

BR's extra-curricular activities provide something for everyone. For the musically inclined, there is the band and chorus. Future scientists enjoy Science Olympiad and US First. Literary geniuses work hard on the yearbook and other BR publications. If you're big on school spirit, cheerleading or the color guard is for you. No matter what you try, you can always find your place in BR's after school activities.

Hello Dolly!

On the last weekend in March 1998 BR's Raynwater Players put on their first performance, "Hello Dolly!" Director David Goldman, choreographer Kelly Moore, musical director Janice Issa, Mrs. White and Mrs. Steeves all worked hard to produce the show, while Jack Phaneuf, in his last year with the musical, constructed the set. Strong performances were turned out by Athan Mantalos and Matt Noblin as Cornelius and Barnaby. Greg Adams was lovable as Horace Vandergelder and Rachael Cantelli shined as Dolly.

Marching Band

The band has, as always, been busy this year. Led by director Gary Hyman and drum majors Ashley Joy and Brad Clark, they dazzled their audiences with their energy and enthusiasm.

Their field show had a Blues Brothers theme, and included the songs "Peter Gunn," "Gimme Some Lovin'," and "Sweet Home Chicago." This show entertained spectators at the Somerset Musictown Festival and the Abington Jamboree, not to mention the fans at home football games.

The band also performed at UMass Band Day and marched in several local parades. This year's major event was the trip to Florida, where they participated in the Magic Music Days at Disney World. It was, indeed, a magical experience.

Behind the Scenes:

the making of Cinderella

As the Raynwater Players filed into the auditorium for auditions, nerves ran wild and voices were warmed up. Candidates ran up on stage and tried their best. Then the cast list was posted. "Who's who?," everyone asked. Katie Moore was chosen to play Cinderella; Matt Noblin, Prince Charming; Jen Grunin, Wicked Step-Mother; Nicole Kelso,Portia; Jess Murphy, Joy; J.Wright Witcher, King; and Jean McLaughlin, Queen.

Rehersals for Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Cinderella" were full of laughs, sweat, music and a lot of great memories. This cast of fifty-six worked extremely hard and was dedicated throughout many long nights.

9. The set crew (Adrienne Bossi, Megan Kelliher, Louisa Plouffe, Lora Marden, Jess Dye, and Shaela Thomas) takes a little time out to have some fun.
10. The artistic staff (Mrs. Steeves, David Goldman, Janice Wright, Mrs. White, and Kelley Moore) takes a well-earned break.
11. Aimee Ayers, Nicole Clapp, Julie Caputo, Jill Shapleigh, and Jill Coleman take time to smile and relax before going on stage.

In the Spotlight

Once upon a time.....

Cinderella obeyed her wicked step-mother and step-sisters. The townspeople cheered as the heralds proclaimed, "The prince is giving a ball." Prince Charming found his love, and they lived happily ever after.

Now, the glass slippers are back in their box, and the piano is silent. The Raynwater Players gave a memorable and professional show that "wowed" their audience. A standing ovation to all! The Raynwater Players offer this little piece of advice to the students at B-R: Impossible things are happening every day!

1. "I want the wine of my country..." shouts the King (J.Wright Witcher) as he plans a ball with the chef (Derek Raynard) and the Queen (Jean McLaughlin).
2. The heralds (Jim Kirkcaldy and Andrew Leahy) sport the black and white tights as they proclaim..."The prince is giving a ball."
3. The Prince (Matt Noblin) shows Cinderella (Katie Moore) around the royal garden as they sing "Ten Minutes Ago."
4. "Well, not you. I want to talk to my ooown daughters!" barks the Wicked Step-Mother (Jen Grunin)to Cinderella (Katie Moore), Joy (Jess Murphy) and Portia (Nicole Kelso).
5. "Another dance?" asks the Prince as Becky Briggs cuts in.

9. MaryEllen Anderson and Lauren Sankus offer the Queen (Jean McLaughlin) a taste test for the ball.
10. The Fairy Godmother (Lia Macrina) grants Cinderella's impossible wish.
11. Katie Roza, Ruth Sullivan, Maryellen Anderson, Carrie Pritchard, Julie Watson, John Dooley, and Jenn Cook rejoice at the thought of the upcoming ball.
12. The cast of Cinderella gathers for a final group shot. Congratulations!

Color Guard

Under the new direction of Virginia Capelo, B-R's color guard continued its show of excellence. Receiving new uniforms after fundraising helped the girls' energy rise to new levels. Looking forward to the trip to Florida in April along with the marching band, concert band, and chorus, they spend many nights practing to achieve perfection. Their half-time show strengthens school spirit at footballs games and gets rave reviews from the fans.

6. Kelly Casey sends out her love to the crowds.

Science Olympiad

B-R's Science Olympiad, led by coach, Ms. Anania, president, Jimmy Moore, and vice-president Tim Resminihad a very strong season this year . Some of the events for the team competition were the "egg drop,", "metric mastery," "earth, sea, and sky," "periodic table", and "say it again. " A few of the teams that earned medals this year were: Rob Chambers and Paul Kostas (in "bio-equation") and the thunderous duo Jimmy Moore and Tim Resmini (in propellar propulsion).

1. Tim Resmini and Jimmy Moore receive medals for their star studded performance in "propellar propulsion"
2. Chris Daniels tower might as well be made of cast iron, as it easily supports the maximum weight of a paltry 56 pounds.

Peer Leaders

Peer leaders is a group of motivated individuals who want to make a difference. Their main goal is to help others in the community and lead young students down the right path as they reach their teenage years. Throughout our early lives we are faced with many difficult decisions dealing with family, friends, school, drugs, sports, relationships, etc. Peer leaders want to lead others into making the choice to live a life of giving rather than taking. They work extremely hard at achieving that goal by getting involved in the R.A.V.E. volunteer program, the D.A.R.E. program, volunteering at soup kitchens, and tutoring as well as many other volunteer activities.

Publications

With central headquarters located in the mysterious shadows of 235, the publications at BR educate, entertain, and influence the faculty and students. Perhaps the most vital to the smooth functioning of our school is the weekly calendar created by Lindsay Simpson. This not only informs everyone of every softball game and Art Club meeting, but also amuses us with quotes of the week or seasonal graphics. The head juggler of every B-R publication, Ms. Diane "The Boss" McGuire created the B-R Journal, a newsletter for the parents of students who leave notices crumpled in the botom of their lockers, never remember to tell their folks about conferences, or somehow misplace their report cards.

Jen Grunin has continued in her second year as Editor-in-Chief of the Regional Sound, where she and her staff received an overwhelmingly positve response from staff, students, and parents. The Brockton Enterprise has also called Grunin to write features and editorials for them on a regular basis.

Because of the successful revival of last year's school newspaper, Ms. McGuire also begged a reluctant Jen Grunin to take over the Editor-in-Chief position for the 1999 Unitas. With the help of Tracy Scanlan and Lindsay Simpson (Blurb typist extraordinares and treasurers), Brian Heavey and Jean McLaughlin (Senior and Baby Page Wizards) Mark Krikorian (head typist) Pam Osterhous and Jess Schmuck (right-hand reliability at its best) and the floating staff that ran to the Chief's aid with every random outburst, verbal battle, or stress attack that erupted, the yearbook is finally finished!

In her nonexistent spare time, Jen with the aid of Mrs. White and Ms. McGuire also designed the program for Cinderella. The publications department also creates programs for the Academic Awards Nights.

Student Activities

National Honor Society: Members of this prestetious national organization must earn a 5.8 overall GPA, and demonstrate leadership, scholarship and excellence. This year the NHA participated in the Toys for Tots drive which provided gifts for the Pediatric Floor of Brockton Hospital. Members are required to perform 20 hours of community service which includes tutoring other students, caring for the elderly, and helping in soup kitchens. The highlights of the year are a faculty appreciation tea in March and the induction ceremony for new members in May. S.A.D.D. The Club has encouraged students to avoid destructive behavior, They tried to show their peers that a large percentage of the student body agrees with their ideals. They have done this by building the "Chain of Life," distributing red ribbons at the Semi, and participating in the "Grim Reaper Day." More activities are planned for the spring to remind students fo the dangers of drinking and driving, especially around prom time. Sharon Bradshaw
July 10, 1981 - June 29, 1997

We hope your dreams of heaven are as good as the dreams you had for your life.

Love. Mom. Tony. Kelly. Mel lissa. Rhondé. Amanda. Brittnee. Jim.
and the nephew you never knew. Cameron.

This young lady was blooming with individually. She loved animals. especiallly her feret Mitzy. She enjoyed babysitting and acquired many luxuries by working hard. Getting involved and achiving was natural. She was a member of the championship cheerleading team that won at Disneyworld in '94. Go. Silver City Cougars!

Don't be fooled by this prim look. she enjoyed helping the children at Handi-Kids with their horse-riding therapy.

There she fell in love with a horse named Orion.

Demanding attention from Mom at Disneyworld. this little future artist will dream Disney demands her talent.

Sharon's family would like to give special thanks to : Liz Killea. Jill Rose. Heather Henessey. Nicole Hendrickson. Melissa and Shelley Cuellar. Michele Oicles. and Jen Benoit.

Sponsored by Sharon's family.

Congratulations, Class of '99!
Best Wishes to Peter Maffeo, Jen Grunin, Tim Andrews, Jean McLaughlin, Josh Katz, and Ben McKenna!
